

indian blanket

The installation shown was inspired by an old, weathered journal noting the travels of Lewis and Clark through the beautiful Oklahoma countryside. The journal's elaborate hand drawn sketches and notes described nature's beauty. The Indian Blanket is the Oklahoma state wild flower.

PRESS RELEASE

“inspiring health and healing through nature’s beauty” project achieved LEED Gold Rating

client: Saint Francis Hospital South, Warren Professional Building Corporation

project: Bishops Building at Saint Francis Hospital South

location: Tulsa, Oklahoma

design team: RTKL Associates, Dallas, TX

contractor: Cowen Construction, Tulsa, OK

feature wall elements:

custom designed graphic art panels, blown glass flowers and hardware specializing in feature installations

phone. 214.668.4490 | email. freda@studioartsdesire.com | studioartsdesire.com